

Elias Gedeon

Senior Vice President, APX Commercial Contracts Operations

Elias Gedeon is senior vice president, APX Commercial Contracts Operations. In this role, he is responsible for leading the execution of our new plant contract negotiation and formation.

He has over 40 years of experience in the power generation industry directing businesses in challenging and highly competitive industries. He has held various sales, operations and P&L leadership positions in the U.S. and internationally.

Prior to joining Westinghouse in 2020, he served as senior vice president & Chief Business Development Officer for Babcock & Wilcox. From 2009-2014, he was Alstom Power Boiler Group Vice president of Global Sales and Marketing, and Alstom's Power vice president of Americas Sales from 2003-2009.

Mr. Gedeon started his career at Foster Wheeler Power Group, where he held a series of progressive leadership roles across two decades in commissioning, sales and operations – offering broad domestic and international experience for multiple global business units and industrial products, P&L effectiveness and turnaround, and strategic business planning and development.

Mr. Gedeon earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Stevens Institute of Technology and an executive MBA from the University of Michigan.
